Hi!

My name is Seymore,
the Look Again Owl.

Something just flew past my window.
Let's go out and see.
Those awesome wonders God created start with

Aa

Ant, Antennae

Busy ants work very hard;
They never stop to play.
They talk with their antennae,

Saying,

"Food is that-a-way."

Bb

Butterfly

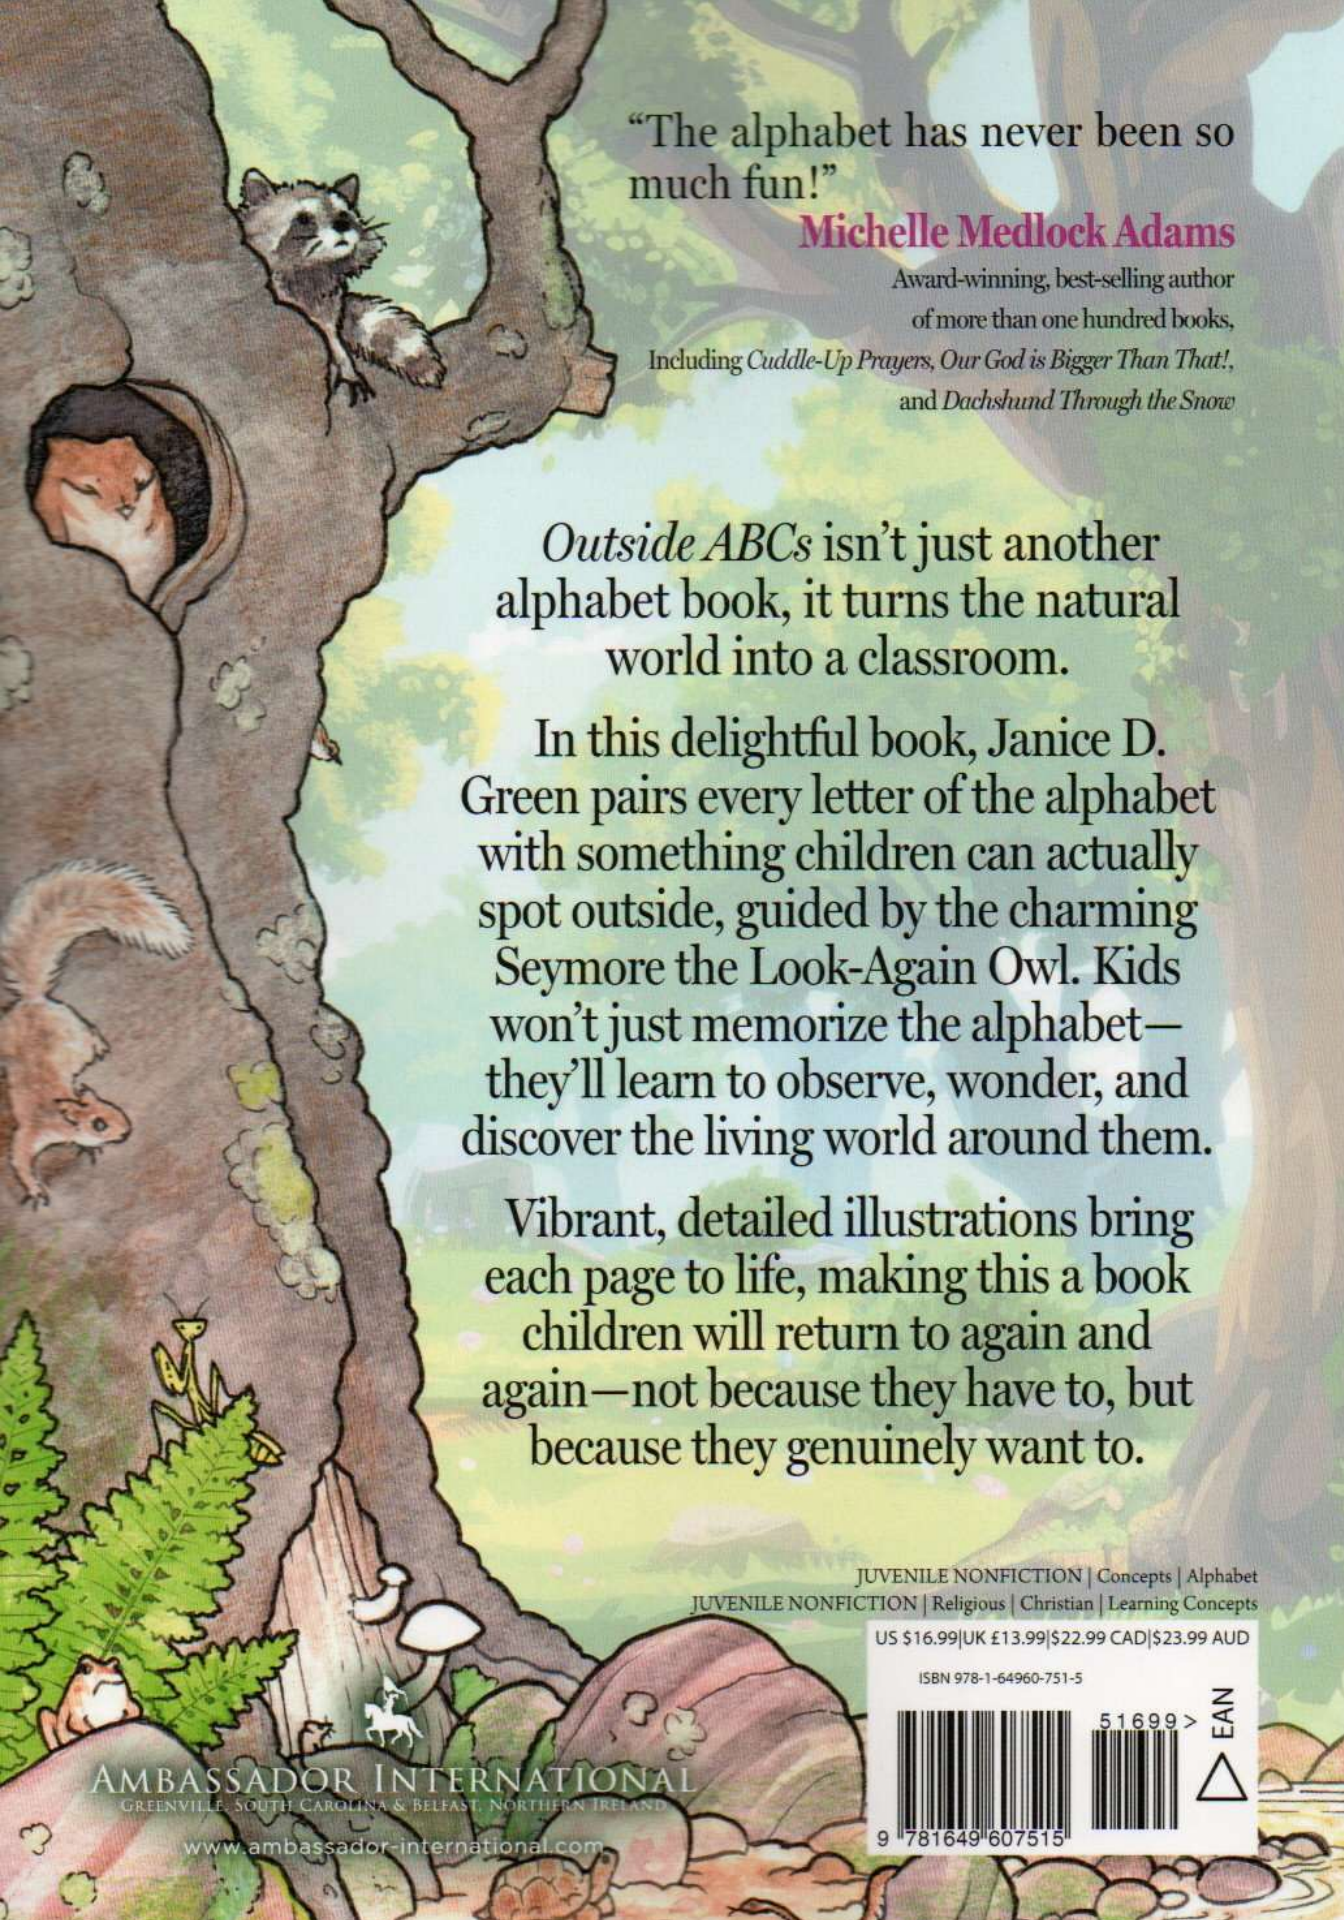

Who flits and flutters here and there

And dances in the sky?
Whose wings are bright and colorful?
The pretty butterfly!

“The alphabet has never been so much fun!”

Michelle Medlock Adams

Award-winning, best-selling author of more than one hundred books,

Including Cuddle-Up Prayers, Our God is Bigger Than That!,
and Dachshund Through the Snow

Outside ABCs isn't just another alphabet book, it turns the natural world into a classroom.

In this delightful book, Janice D.
Green pairs every letter of the alphabet with something children can actually spot outside, guided by the charming Seymore the Look-Again Owl. Kids won't just memorize the alphabet—they'll learn to observe, wonder, and discover the living world around them.

Vibrant, detailed illustrations bring each page to life, making this a book children will return to again and again—not because they have to, but because they genuinely want to.
